About Me

A passionate Computer Science Engineering (CSE) student with a strong interest in technology and problem-solving. With a foundation in software development, data structures and algorithms, I constantly strive to learn new technologies and expand my skill set. I enjoy exploring areas like artificial intelligence, machine learning, and web development. Outside of academics, I like working on personal coding projects, contributing to open-source communities, and participating in hackathons. Through my studies and practical experiences, I aim to build solutions that address real-world problems and make a meaningful impact on society. I'm always open to collaborating with others and looking for opportunities to grow in the field of computer science.
